PREFACE

Ten years ago, following a third visit to Bermuda in 1985, an article of this series, THE TUZO FAMILY (SPEC-Jan.8,1985), recalled the links to Bermuda of the well-known Tuzo family of Gaspé. The names of Joseph Stowe Tuzo and his wife, Mary Eve, recall, in fact, the Bermudian families of Stowe and Eve in addition to that of Tuzo. Publication of THE TUZO FAMILY resulted in interesting exchanges of information with several Tuzo descendants including the eminent Canadian scientist, Dr.John Tuzo Wilson.

A fourth visit to Bermuda in March/April,1995 permitted further search of the fascinating records of the Bermuda Historical Society on Queen Street, Hamilton. The following notes on the Tuzo, Stowe and Eve families serve to supplement the TUZO FAMILY article of a decade ago.
