

GASPÉ OF YESTERDAY

GASPESIAN MILITIA OFFICERS
OF
125 YEARS AGO

The origins of Militia lie far back in time. In New France the Captain of Militia was an Officer of authority and respect in the community.

When the War of the American Revolution brought recurrent threats of sea-borne invasion to the shores of Gaspesia, the role of the Militia was one of active defence.

Through the years, in times of peace and of war, Gaspesians have had a fine record of support for both the Militia and the Armed Forces of Canada on Active Service.

It is this tradition that "GASPÉ OF YESTERDAY" recalls in the following article, "GASPESIAN MILITIA OFFICERS OF 125 YEARS AGO".
