

WAKEHAM

It is with sincere regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Wm. Bechervaise, which occurred at her home here after a lengthy illness.

The late Mrs. Bechervaise, who was in her 72nd year was the daughter of the late Capt. Robert Pye and his wife Jane Miller, of Sandy Beach. She is survived by two sons, George and William at home, four daughters, Mrs. Felix Cuning (Edith), of Haldimand, Mrs. Wilson Scott. (Ada), of Paspébiac, Mrs. Melvin Bechervaise (Jenny) of Gaspé and Nita at home; one sister, Mrs. Coffin of Colonsay, Sask., also two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Sophia Annett of Gaspé and Mrs. Clara Pye of Sandy Beach; nineteen grandchildren and many other relatives to all of whom sympathy is extended. Her husband predeceased her thirty-three years ago and one brother, the Rev. Geo. Pye died on Feb. 8th 1937.

Interment was in St. James Church Cemetery. Archdeacon J. W. Wayman officiating. The carriers were Messrs. Robert Pye, Kenneth Pye, Henry Bechervaise, Reginald Bechervaise, Leslie Bechervaise, Clifton Bechervaise. The Pall Bearers were Messrs. Philip Bechervaise, Angus Bechervaise, John Coffin and Gerald Miller. The Hymns sung were "Hush, Blessed are the Dead", "Abide with Me" and "My God, My Father while I Stray".

Mrs. Austin Miller has returned to her home in Sandy Beach after having spent the winter with her mother, Mrs. Angus Patterson.

Mr. Dermot Patterson was a recent guest of his brother, Mr. Alvah Patterson and Mrs. Patterson, Grand Cascapedia.

Messrs. Philip Bechervaise, Maurice Bechervaise, Elias Coffin and Wilson Coffin have returned to Kingston, Ont., to resume their duties on the Lake boats.

Mrs. John Robson has been spending a few days in York Centre the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boyle.