

Baker's

Baker's Nationality - Irish

The name of the first member of the Baker family to settle in Gaspé and time of his arrival is not known. They first settled in Peninsula, records show they were living there in 1788 and 70 years later there were families living in Fox River, Anticosti Island, Cape Cove, Sandy Beach, and Gaspé Basin.

James, his wife Christianna Ascah and his two boys moved to Sandy Beach in the 1830's and made his home on the property that Edwin Baker Resides on to day. There was another Family moved to Sandy Beach the same time as James.

The records in this book show only James and his descendants of the Baker Family.
