

Dumaresq's

Dumaresq's Nationality - Jersey French

Three brothers members of the Dumaresq family arrived at the Gaspé Basin around 1845 from Jersey, It's not known where they first made their home , how - ever in 1865 they were all married and had homes of their own. George resided in the Baker's Lodge which he built on land he bought from Sophia Hannah Coffin widow of James Perchard, Nicholas' home was on the property the west side next to Wakeham St. and Frederick bought a property from Shaw's. His home is still in use to - day and is owned by his grand son Harold Dumaresq.
