

JONES

Jones Nationality - English

William was the first member of the Jones family to settle in Gaspé. In 1910 on his way to British Columbia from England, to buy an Orchard he stopped at York Centre, the birth place of his wife, and rented the Old Home of John F. Davis to have a vacation at York Centre. He became so comfortable that a year later he bought the home and remained there. James, his son resides in the old Home today.
