Pye's Nationality - Irish

Mary Ellen, First member of the Pye family to settle in Gaspé arrived around 1850. She ran away from her native Ireland and found a haven in Gaspé. She married and settled in Haldimand.

A year later a second member of the Pye family, Robert Wallace arrived in search for his sister, Mary Ellen. He too found a haven in Gaspé, married, built a home on the grounds of Fort Haldimand, later he built a second home in Sandy Beach on his wife's land which was given to her by her father, Thomas Miller.

Robert Wallace, a grand son occupies the old Home today.
