

STEWARTS

STEWART'S NATIONALITY SCOTCH

Charlie first member of the Stewart family to settle in Gaspé arrived from Scotland in 1834 at the early age of 14(fourteen). He lived at Gaspé Basin for several years, later he built a home at York Centre. The old vacant home still stands to day, just west of his grand son's home, Alymer Stewart. Charlie was a Whaler, he owned his own boat and was the captain.
